

Nashville Ballet performs the

“The Singing Tortoise”

Sponsored by the Mt. Juliet Library

WHEN : March 18

WHERE : Mt. Juliet Community Center

TIME : 10:00 am

In this West African folk tale, a hunter named Ama meets a magical singing tortoise. Once Ama befriends the tortoise, she tries to teach him that man is simply a visitor on earth who needs to respect all things. But Ama tries to exploit the tortoise's special gifts in order to gain favor with the people of his village. However, the tortoise has a plan of her own to teach Ama to learn his lesson the hard way. This cautionary tale features elaborate masks that represent animals and chieftains

For more info contact the Community Center at 758-6522 or the Mt. Juliet Library at 758-7051